1. Carload shipments of munitions are periodically removed from munitions dumps at Strejestii de Jos, a village which is about 38 miles south of Râmnicul-Vâlcea and at Bâscoveni near Pitesti by officers of the General Staff who hand them over to officials of the Ministry of Interior. The freight cars are then sent to Giurgiu by way of the Filaret Station in Bucharest. At Giurgiu the shipments are handed over to officials of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The guards are changed at each stop.
2. It has been impossible to trace these shipments beyond Giurgiu.
3. The munitions dumps at Strejestii de Jos and Bâscoveni are described as having a capacity of "approximately 1,000 freight cars" each.
